

Elle Hope

Visual Arts

Las Vegas, NV

Elle Hope is a Las Vegas based poet who writes about her culture, her body, and the many trials and tribulations of being a woman. She has been seen performing spoken word and featuring around the Las Vegas area at various venues including, House of Blues, The Space, and Brooklyn Bowl.

Hope is a two time Beyond the Neon finalist, featured in the Desert Companion's "Ones to Watch 2022" magazine release, and 2019 nominated Poet of the Year for The Jam Awards. She has also Headlined at multiple Art Festivals including "The Wave In" Festival by Black Mountain Institute and the Utah Arts Festival. Her work has been featured by Nevada Humanities, The Beyond the Neon Anthology, Shout-out LA, the Unpopular Passion Podcast, and many more exhibitions.

Hope is mostly known for her continuous activism to honor her local poetic community. She is the creator and host of the poetry exclusive open mic, Spotlight Poetry (@spotlightpoetrylv). Along with cultivating spaces for poets, Hope can also be found hosting various writing and performance workshops as an official teaching artist partnered with Poetry Promise, Inc. Hope's most recent publication was her debut self-published anthology "Young, Gifted, & Black: A Poetic Anthology Vol.1 & Vol.2" featuring over 30+ African-American poets from all across the Southwest Valley.

Program Types

Workshops, classes and residencies

Language Proficiencies

Fees

Contact to inquire

Availability

Contact to inquire

Audiences

K-12, Young Adult, Adult

Venues

Technical requirements

Contact to inquire

Counties:

- Clark
- Esmeralda
- Lincoln
- Lyon
- Mineral
- Nye

NEVADA
ARTS COUNCIL

Community Programming

Poetry & Activism: Researching and connecting the personal & political to create a poem

Page to Stage: Using Theatre techniques to create a dynamic hold the attention of the audience

How to Annotate your Poems for Performance: Analyzing your writing with formal acting techniques

Writing The Body: Analyzing shame culture and writing works to affirm body positivity

Step Into the Audition Room: Master audition techniques to present yourself to a panel of judges

Slam Poetry 101: Beginning strategies for competing in Slam Poetry events